43rd ANNUAL EASTER ART
EXHIBITION

Port Macquarie boasts a thriving arts community, and this exhibition in particular, has a record of attracting work by leading artists, not only from Port Macquarie and the Hastings, but far beyond.

The Port Macquarie News has been a key supporter of the exhibition for many years. As well as delivering up-to-date, local news for the past 136 years, it maintains a proud record of supporting and promoting local community events such as ours.

Support for this year's Port Macquarie Art Society Easter Art Exhibition is another sign of the Port Macquarie News' commitment to the local community and it's passion to see the arts continue to thrive.

For regular articles and photographs from the exhibition, pick up a copy of the Port News every Monday, Wednesday, Friday or visit www.portnews.com.au anytime.

This Years Judge: Julie Shea

Julie has been active in the local art community since 1989, curating and exhibiting in group and solo exhibitions, competitions, art teaching, artist talks, life drawing co-ordination, competition judging, and art supply/framing/art gallery management. In the broader and online communities she has exhibited successfully in competitions and exhibitions.

Julie completed Bachelor of Visual Arts in 1983 and Master of Cross Disciplinary Art & Design in 2013. Academic study has been augmented by diverse practice such as in marble carving in Carrara, Italy; workshops including drawing, painting, virtual (AR) sculpture, and MOOCs (short online courses) including museum studies, research methods, robotics; as well as private supervised research in Art & Animism.

"My art practice is based around drawing and has extended widely through painting, sculpture, installation, performance, digital media and experimentation. Current practice consists of the development of two overlapping bodies of work with the themes of landscape and pareidolia."
